Climate Change Solutions Poster Contest!

As the 40th anniversary of Earth Day approaches, it's time to start this school year thinking green! Earth Day Network is holding a back-to-school Student Climate Change Solutions contest for K-4th graders. Winners will be announced on Earth Day Network's website and newsletter and will receive a prize package, including an autographed copy of the "Think Green for Kids" book, Planet Earth Gets Well, poster and t-shirt for the winning student, and an autographed poster and copy of Planet Earth DVD set for the teacher/classroom.

Submissions are due on September 30th 2009 (PERU) and winners will be announced on November 2, 2009. If you would like to participate please click here for guidelines :
